Concentration of Troops.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—War is on between the United States and Spain.
The North Atlantic squadron has been ordered to blockade Cuba. This practically is an act of war.

Word came to the state department from Minister Woodford that the Spanish government, having anticipated and prevented his intention to present the president's ultimatum, he had asked for his passports. The administration, in a public statement, announced that it regarded the action of the Spanish government as rendering unnecessary further diplomatic action on the part of the United States, and further stated that it regarded the course adopted by Spain as one placing upon that country the responsibility for the breach of friendly relations.

Mr. Woodford's telegram resulted in the calling of a special cabinet meeting to arrange an outline of a plan of campaign or rather to determine how to begin the execution of the plan of campaign already prepared by the strategic boards of the army and navy departments. The immediate result was the order for the North Atlantic squadron to begin the blockade of Havana.
How much further than this the cabinet progressed in its deliberations it is not possible to say, for the reason that the time has now come when the interests of the government require that the movements of ships and troops should be guarded with the greatest care from undue publicity in order to prevent the enemy from taking advantage of the information.

The North Atlantic squadron under Captain Sampson's command makes a splendid array of fine vessels, comprising battleships such as the Iowa and Indiana, monitors like the Puriton, Terror and Amphitrite; armored cruisers like the New York, flagship; protected cruisers such as the Cincinnati, Marblehead and Montgomery; gunboats like the Vicksburg, Wilmington and Annapolis, regular torpedo-boats, as the Ericsson, Cushing, Winslow and the like and not to speak of the large number of fast yachts and other vessels that have been added to the fleet by purchase.

This force is quite competent to blockade all the ports in Cuba, or at least all the ports connecting by rail with Havana, and so likely to be used to supply that place in the event of siege with food and munitions of war. This statement is to be taken with the understanding that it does not contemplate the coming to Cuban waters of the Spanish fleet. In such case, however, the probable policy would be to abandon the blockade and endeavor to force the Spanish fleet to battle.

Minister Woodford's action as reported to the state department in a late telegram indicated that he was following a carefully prepared program. A significant feature of his message was the statement the Spanish government notified him that it regarded its withdrawal of its minister, Senor Polo, at Washington, as terminating diplomatic negotiations, showing that it was not disposed to accept the expressed intention of our government to continue Mr.
Woodford as a medium of communication until tomorrow noon.

Mr. Woodford also announced that he had instructed Consul General Bowen to draw from the country. He further stated that he had informed the Spanish government, after asking for his passports, that he had placed the American legation in Madrid and American interests in Spain generally in the hands of the British embassy.

It was found necessary to frame a notice to the powers of the intention of our government to establish a blockade at Havana, a notification required by international law.

The Spanish fleet left Cape Verde islands suddenly and the destination is unknown.

The navy department, aside from giving the orders to the squadron, continued the work of adding to the navy and purchased another ship at Norfolk as an auxiliary craft and some small yachts. The news of the actual beginning of war was received with gravity at the department, and there were many speculations as to the destination of the Spanish squadron. One suggestion was that it is heading to cut off the fine battleship Oregon, now on its way from the Pacific coast around to join Captain Sampson's command.

There is also some fear that the Oregon may be taken at an unfair advantage, without knowledge of the existence of war, by the Spanish torpedo destroyer Temmerire, which is now lying at Buenos Ayres. Possibly with a view to avoiding a conflict in the straights of Magellan, where she would be at a disadvantage, the Oregon has been ordered to go around Cape Horn.

In the war department orders flew to concentrate the concentration of troops in the south and Secretary Alger was several times in consultation with the president, resulting in the determination to call for 100,000 volunteers as soon as congress passes the necessary legislation.

For several days the secretary of the treasury has received a large number of telegrams from collectors of customs at ports on the Atlantic and gulf coasts stating that ships were being laden for Cuban ports. Large shipments of mules were being made from southern ports and beef and coal from those further north.

The question as to whether these vessels should be permitted to sail was referred to the attorney general and his opinion was that pending the passage of the bill prohibiting all exportations of articles of this character this government should not interfere.

SPAIN APPARENTLY IS ALREADY WHIPPED.

Lack of Supplies May Soon End the War.
Overthrow of Ministry and Dynasty May Follow.

LONDON, April 22.—A dispatch to The Daily Telegraph from Barcelona via Paris says:

"Grave apprehensions are entertained in the highest government circles that the issue of war may be decided not by valor and enthusiasm and dogged perseverance, qualities of which the Spaniards possess an abundance, but by reserves of coal and victuals, of which they have made but a scanty provision in Cuba. It appears that in respect to coal in particular they are comparatively worse off than they have hitherto imagined.

"The Spanish government firmly believing down to the very last moment that peace would be preserved through the intercession of the pope and the powers, neglected to lay in sufficient provision of coal, despite the representations made to them by one or two far-seeing naval officers. Besides this, it is believed they never once inquired of the British or other neutral governments whether coal would be regarded as contraband of war. The result is said to be a state of things which may be fraught with unpleasant surprises and bring hostilities to a premature end.

"If, as I fear, events should demonstrate the truth, the close of the war may also be the end not only of the Liberal government, but of much else which is infinitely more worthy of respect than any political party, and which enjoys the sympathy of all Europe. I hear that extreme depression prevails among the few who are initiated into this painful secret."

FLYING SQUADRON READY.

Engines Coupled—Officers and Men of the Fleet Much Excited.

FORT MONROE, Va., April 22.—Beginning with the reception of the first news bulletins from Washington, intense excitement prevailed here, both on shore and among the officers and men of the squadron.

After the receipt of the bulletin that the Spanish believed the ultimatum to be a declaration of war, Commodore Schley signalled from the Brooklyn for all engines to be coupled. In port ships' engines are uncoupled, and are not usually coupled until at sea. Arrangements were made for the telegraph stations on shore to remain open all night to receive dispatches.

credited to the American flag.

The cruiser Nashville spied a Spanish merchantman, Buena Vura, and signalled her to surrender. She continued her course, and the Nashville fired her six pounder. The result of the shot was instantly seen, for the Spanish flag came fluttering down, the vessel sur-

WOODFORD IS SAFE,

But He Had Many Exciting Experiences
While on the Way.

PARIS, April 22.—[Special.]—General Woodford, late American minister to Spain, reached the French frontier this morning after a number of thrilling experiences.

The news of his departure had been sent along the railroad line, and at every station people gathered to curse the principal passenger and the government he represented.

The train at Valladolid was attacked by a mob who stoned the carriages, but General Woodford was unhurt. The many other experiences through which he passed were thrilling.

The excitement throughout Spain is intense, and demonstrations are reported from many town and cities. Had General Woodford's departure been delayed the consequences would have been serious.

CALLING RESERVES.

Spain Is Awakening to the Fact That War Is On.

MADRID, April 22.—[Special.]—There is much activity throughout Spain today, as an order was issued this morning calling 30,000 reserves into active service. The regiments will be mobilized at once at some spot not yet designated.

It is believed this call will be followed in a day or two by an order for 50,000 men.

WANT THE PEOPLE

Invader.

HAVANA, April 22.—[Special.]—The city is in a state of wildest excitement. Throughout the morning the greatest activity has prevailed about the palace and a manifesto has just been issued calling upon the inhabitants to stand together to resist the invader. The document was well received, and hundreds of men are being enrolled in the volunteer companies.

A HANDSOME FLAG

Will Be Presented to the Soldiers by the First National Bank.

Before the boys of Company E march off to the war they will be presented with a handsome flag by the First National bank.

When the fact became plain that the boys would be needed the patriotic gentlemen who make up the officers of the institution decided they should not go to the front without some substantial evidence of the high regard in which they are held by the people of this community. A flag was selected as the most fitting emblem, and as handsome and costly a stand of colors as can be purchased has been ordered. It is expected to arrive today.

The time for the presentation has not yet been set, but it will take place in Washington street in front of the bank probably Saturday evening at 7:30 p. m.
The command will be drawn up in the street, and Colonel H. R. Hill will make the address of presentation.

Due announcement will be made, and it is probable a great crowd of enthusiastic people will gather there to witness the unusual sight and give three cheers for the flag, its donors and the company.

should there be a call for other than the National Guard.

The rolls were opened last night.
Within an hour eight names were on the list. Recruiting will be continued tonight and every night until the company is filled.

Police Court.

Mayor Bough this morning had two cases to dispose of and in both instances quick time was made.

Last night Officer Woods of Sixth street arrested William Fisher, of Wells-ville, for being drunk and acting disorderly on a street car, in charge of Motorman Smith. The motorman claims that Fisher has been causing them much annoyance for some time, and Mr. Smith this morning told the mayor just how matters stood.

A complaint was filed against a citizen yesterday afternoon. He will not be heard until late this afternoon.

Can't Buy Coffee.

A prominent grocer this morning was notified by telegraph that his order of 1,000 pounds of coffee had been refused for the reason that war had been declared, and no one could tell what the prices would be from one day to another.

The same dealer the first of the week engaged 20,000 pounds of coffee. The price was advanced considerably over the price of last week.

Why the Brotherhood Moves.

The Brotherhood will move to their new quarters in the Thompson block about May 15. A lack of room in the present quarters is the reason for the change.

The rooms will be elegantly furnished and will be completed in time for the annual meeting in July, which will in all probability be held here.

No Parade Tonight.

Captain Hill's command will not parade tonight, but the time will be occupied in drilling the recruits. The men are all anxious to become proficient as soon as possible.

RESERVES TO BE CALLED OUT.

Minister of War Authorized to Get Together 80,000—Three Vessels With Troops Leave Cadiz—Big Crowd Witnessed Departure of Woodford.

MADRID, April 22.—Crowds have been parading the streets and a mob gathered in front of the Equitable Life Insurance building and smashed the American eagle to bits. Then they carried fragments through the streets yelling "down with the Yankees."

War Minister Correa has been authorized to call out 80,000 reserves. Three vessels loaded with troops have left Cadiz, destination unknown.

When General Woodford departed he arrived at the station about a quarter of an hour in advance of the hour at which the train was scheduled to leave.
During the interval General Woodford conversed with the representatives of the foreign press and a number of private friends. An immense crowd gathered at the station, composed of all classes. A strong force of police and civic guards maintained order, while amid the crowd moved a large number of private detectives. A detachment of the civic guards accompanied General Woodford to the frontier. The retiring minister maintained his usual calmness, but looked worn and fatigued.

When General Woodford took his seat in the train there was a stir among the spectators and a rush toward the window of the carriage. The minister sat unconcerned and dignified.

Senor Aguilera, the civil governor of Madrid, his gigantic figure rising head and shoulders above the crowd, in a stentorian voice raised a cheer, which was thrice responded by the crowd.
"Viva Espana," resounded throughout the station until the train was fairly outside. This was not meant as a kindly farewell, but was an explosion of pent up feelings.

At the cabinet council Sagasta, addressing the queen regent, said: "The first cannon shot is almost audible."

In the Spanish senate Marshal Martinez de Campos asked the minister for foreign affairs, Senor Gullon, to make a statement regarding the relations between Spain and the United States, whereupon the minister replied that all relations were broken off. The former captain general of Cuba then made a patriotic speech, in which he declared that Cuba will never lose her Spanish sovereignty. Senor Fernandez Gonzales declared, in the name of the Republicans "that party spirit is now drowned," adding that "there is only one voice throughout Spain, to repel foreign aggression."

WAR REVENUE MEASURE.

Republican Ways and Means Members Framing One—May Tax Incomes.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The Republican members of the ways and means committee expect to complete the war revenue measure and have it ready for submission to the full committee today or tomorrow. One of the biggest contests in progress in the committee is over the question of taxing tea and coffee. The proposition to place 10 cents tax on tea and 8 cents upon coffee has met considerable opposition and various suggestions have been made as to subjects for taxation in lieu of tea and coffee. Among them is a proposition to place 50 cents per barrel tax on petroleum, but it now seems probable this will be abandoned. There is also a proposition to tax mineral waters, wines, etc., but a proposition which now meets with more favor is to tax railroad tickets and sleeping car tickets 10 cents for each trip of over 100 miles.
It is estimated between $20,000,000 and $25,000,000 could be raised from this source.

Representative Sayers of Texas, leader of the minority of the house committee on appropriations, introduced a bill imposing and providing for the collection of a tax on incomes.

KEY WEST, April 22.—The North At-

There is no doubt of the correctness of the statement that the fighting

tion of a blockade.

It may be that occasion for action of a more offensive character will arise and that an engagement with the Spanish fleet may occur, but these possibilities are shrouded in the fateful future.

Concentration of Troops.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—War is on between the United States and Spain.

The North Atlantic squadron has been ordered to blockade Cuba. This practically is an act of war.

Word came to the state department from Minister Woodford that the Spanish government, having anticipated and prevented his intention to present the president's ultimatum, he had asked for his passports. The administration, in a public statement, announced that it regarded the action of the Spanish government as rendering unnecessary further diplomatic action on the part of the United States, and further stated that it regarded the course adopted by Spain as one placing upon that country the responsibility for the breach of friendly relations.

Mr. Woodford's telegram resulted in the calling of a special cabinet meeting to arrange an outline of a plan of campaign or rather to determine how to begin the execution of the plan of campaign already prepared by the strategic boards of the army and navy departments. The immediate result was the order for the North Atlantic squadron to begin the blockade of Havana.

How much further than this the cabinet progressed in its deliberations it is not possible to say, for the reason that the time has now come when the interests of the government require that the movements of ships and troops should be guarded with the greatest care from undue publicity in order to prevent the enemy from taking advantage of the information.

The North Atlantic squadron under Captain Sampson's command makes a splendid array of fine vessels, comprising battleships such as the Iowa and Indiana, monitors like the Puritan, Terror and Amphitrite; armored cruisers like the New York, flagship; protected cruisers such as the Cincinnati, Marblehead and Montgomery; gunboats like the Vicksburg, Wilmington and Annapolis, regular torpedo boats, as the Ericson, Cushing, Winslow and the like and not to speak of the large number of fast yachts and other vessels that have been added to the fleet by purchase.

This force is quite competent to blockade all the ports in Cuba, or at least all the ports connecting by rail with Havana, and so likely to be used to supply that place in the event of siege with food and munitions of war. This statement is to be taken with the understanding that it does not contemplate the coming to Cuban waters of the Spanish fleet. In such case, however, the probable policy would be to abandon the blockade and endeavor to force the Spanish fleet to battle.

Minister Woodford's action as reported to the state department in a late telegram indicated that he was following a carefully prepared program. A significant feature of his message was the statement the Spanish government notified him that it regarded its withdrawal of its minister, Senor Polo, at Washington, as terminating diplomatic negotiations, showing that it was not disposed to accept the expressed intention of our government to continue Mr. Woodford as a medium of communication until tomorrow noon.

Mr. Woodford also announced that he had instructed Consul General Bowen to draw from the country. He further stated that he had informed the Spanish government, after asking for his passports, that he had placed the American legation in Madrid and American interests in Spain generally in the hands of the British embassy.

It was found necessary to frame a notice to the powers of the intention of our government to establish a blockade at Havana, a notification required by international law.

The Spanish fleet left Cape Verde islands suddenly and the destination is unknown.

The navy department, aside from giving the orders to the squadron, continued the work of adding to the navy and purchased another ship at Norfolk as an auxiliary craft and some small yachts. The news of the actual beginning of war was received with gravity at the department, and there were many speculations as to the destination of the Spanish squadron. One suggestion was that it is heading to cut off the fine battleship Oregon, now on its way from the Pacific coast around to join Captain Sampson's command.

There is also some fear that the Oregon may be taken at an unfair advantage, without knowledge of the existence of war, by the Spanish torpedo destroyer Temmerie, which is now lying at Buenos Ayres. Possibly with a view to avoiding a conflict in the straits of Magellan, where she would be at a disadvantage, the Oregon has been ordered to go around Cape Horn.

In the war department orders flew to the relative to the concentration of troops in the south and Secretary Alger was several times in consultation with the president, resulting in the determination to call for 100,000 volunteers as soon as congress passes the necessary legislation.

For several days the secretary of the treasury has received a large number of telegrams from collectors of customs at ports on the Atlantic and gulf coasts stating that ships were being laden for Cuban ports. Large shipments of mules were being made from southern ports and beef and coal from those further north.

The question as to whether these vessels should be permitted to sail was referred to the attorney general and his opinion was that pending the passage of the bill prohibiting all exportations of articles of this character this government should not interfere.

MADRID, April 22.—Crowds have been parading the streets and a mob gathered in front of the Equitable Life Insurance building and smashed the American eagle to bits. Then they carried fragments through the streets yelling "down with the Yankees."

War Minister Correa has been authorized to call out 80,000 reserves. Three vessels loaded with troops have left Cadiz, destination unknown.

When General Woodford departed he arrived at the station about a quarter of an hour in advance of the hour at which the train was scheduled to leave. During the interval General Woodford conversed with the representatives of the foreign press and a number of private friends. An immense crowd gathered at the station, composed of all classes. A strong force of police and civic guards maintained order, while amid the crowd moved a large number of private detectives. A detachment of the civic guards accompanied General Woodford to the frontier. The retiring minister maintained his usual calmness, but looked worn and fatigued.

When General Woodford took his seat in the train there was a stir among the spectators and a rush toward the window of the carriage. The minister sat unconcerned and dignified.

Senor Aguilera, the civil governor of Madrid, his gigantic figure rising head and shoulders above the crowd, in a stentorian voice raised a cheer, which was thrice responded by the crowd. "Viva Espana," resounded throughout the station until the train was fairly outside. This was not meant as a kindly farewell, but was an explosion of pent up feelings.

At the cabinet council Sagasta, addressing the queen regent, said: "The first cannon shot is almost audible."

In the Spanish senate Marshal Martinez de Campos asked the minister for foreign affairs, Senor Gullon, to make a statement regarding the relations between Spain and the United States, whereupon the minister replied that all relations were broken off. The former captain general of Cuba then made a patriotic speech, in which he declared that Cuba will never lose her Spanish sovereignty. Senor Fernandez Gonzales declared, in the name of the Republicans "that party spirit is now drowned," adding that "there is only one voice throughout Spain, to repel foreign aggression."

WAR REVENUE MEASURE.

Republican Ways and Means Members Framing One—May Tax Incomes.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The Republican members of the ways and means committee expect to complete the war revenue measure and have it ready for submission to the full committee today or tomorrow. One of the biggest contests in progress in the committee is over the question of taxing tea and coffee. The proposition to place 10 cents tax on tea and 3 cents upon coffee has met considerable opposition and various suggestions have been made as to subjects for taxation in lieu of tea and coffee. Among them is a proposition to place 50 cents per barrel tax on petroleum, but it now seems probable this will be abandoned. There is also a proposition to tax mineral waters, wines, etc., but a proposition which now meets with more favor is to tax railroad tickets and sleeping car tickets 10 cents for each trip of over 100 miles. It is estimated between $20,000,000 and $25,000,000 could be raised from this source.

Representative Sayers of Texas, leader of the minority of the house committee on appropriations, introduced a bill imposing and providing for the collection of a tax on incomes.

THE FLEET MOVES ON CUBAN ISLE TODAY.

A Blockade to Be Enforced, to Be Followed by Fighting the Spanish Fleet, If Necessary.

KEY WEST, April 22.—The North Atlantic squadron will move on Havana some time today.

There is no doubt of the correctness of the statement that the fighting squadron will sail with the sole intention of a blockade.

It may be that occasion for action of a more offensive character will arise and that an engagement with the Spanish fleet may occur, but these possibilities are shrouded in the fateful future.

TEXT OF THE ULTIMATUM.

The Cablegram to Woodford and His Reply to Sherman.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Following is the ultimatum to Spain:

Woodford, Minister, Madrid:

You have been furnished with the text of a joint resolution voted by the congress of the United States on the nineteenth instant—approved today—in relation to the pacification of the island of Cuba. In pursuance of that act the president directs you to immediately communicate to the government of Spain said resolution with the formal demand of the government of the United States that the government of Spain at once relinquish its authority and government in the island of Cuba, and withdraw its land and naval force from Cuba and Cuban waters.

In taking this step, the United States hereby disclaims any disposition or intention to exercise sovereignty, jurisdiction or control over said islands except for the pacification thereof and asserts its determination when that is accomplished to leave the government and control of the island to its people under such free and independent government as they may establish.

If by the hour of noon on Saturday next, the twenty-third day of April, instant, there be not communicated to this government by that of Spain a full and satisfactory response to this demand and resolution, whereby the ends of peace in Cuba shall be assured, the president will proceed without further notice to use the power and authority enjoined and conferred upon him by the said joint resolution to such extent as may be necessary to carry the same into effect. SHERMAN.

Woodford's reply said:

Sherman, Washington:

Early this, Thursday, morning, immediately after the receipt of your open telegram and before I had communicated same to Spanish government, Spanish minister for foreign affairs notified me that diplomatic relations are broken between the two countries, and that all official communication between their respective representatives have ceased. I accordingly asked for safe passports. Turn legislation over to British embassy and leave for Paris this afternoon. Have notified consuls. WOODFORD.

THREE IMPORTANT MEASURES.

Senate Takes Action For the Defense of the Nation.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Three important measures have been passed by the senate, all of which relate largely to the national defense. The sundry civil bill, which has been pending for two weeks, and which carries a large amount of money intended to be used in the strengthening of the country's coast defenses, was finally passed. The naval appropriation bill was immediately taken up and practically completed, although, pending the discussion of an amendment concerning the price of armor plate, the bill was displaced in order that the measure temporarily increasing the military establishment of the United States in time of war might be considered. After a long discussion of the bill, as amended by the committee, it was passed. A joint resolution was adopted giving the president power to prevent the exportation of coal and other war material.

No Work Today.

Engineer McConnell and his assistants, Doc Hill and J. D. Keith, came up from Steubenville this morning for the purpose of furthering their work on the South Side.

THE MISFIT AGAIN TURNED DOWN

It Was Willing to Exchange Advertising Space For a Few Complimentary Expressions From a Trade Journal, but the Journal Did Not Bite.

"East Liverpool, O., March 31, 1898.

"Editor of Printers' Ink:

"Would you like to entertain a proposition to give our paper and business a write-up in Printers' Ink in exchange for advertising space in the Crisis?"

Yours truly,

"The Crisis."

Per H. F. H.

"The Little Schoolmaster is not able to entertain the proposition submitted above. He can not insert any paid reading matter, whether paid for in space, in cash or in reciprocal courtesies. If the Crisis ever gets a sketch inserted in Printers' Ink's reading columns, it will be because the sketch is of intrinsic interest to the Little Schoolmaster's readers, and not because a tempting consideration was offered. If the Crisis has a really interesting story to tell, it should be sent on by all means. If it is good enough it will appear. If not good enough to go free, it can not appear at all as reading matter."

The misfit has been caught again. For several years it has labored under the delusion that it was a great newspaper, and weighted down with a sense of its own importance, has at times attempted to force this conviction upon the public. On several occasions it has failed. Now another can be attached to the list.

After Doctor Ikert had been elected to congress it sent out a circular letter to scores of newspaper offices asking that words of commendation be given it for the part it had played in the campaign. Some fellows bit, but the Steubenville Gazette refused to be caught and exposed the scheme, much to the delight of members of its own party who were acquainted with the facts.

Now comes the last one. From the above it can be seen the letter was addressed to Printers' Ink, a respectable trade paper published in New York. But the offer of advertising space in exchange for puff was not received with delight. Printers' Ink was not to be caught napping. Its space was far too valuable to exchange for space in the misfit, and then it has a reputation to maintain, and that could never be done through praise to a sheet so notoriously unreliable and untruthful.

In view of the facts as presented by the letter to Printers' Ink, would it be wrong to ask how much space was promised the Cincinnati Post for those few words of commendation the misfit saw fit to publish, surrounded by a border of mourning, the other day?

THE "BLUE JAY."

The Supper Last Night Was a Genuine Feast.

The "Blue Jay" supper at the Christian church last night was indeed a royal feast of good things, delicacies and substantial, and patrons were loud in their praise of the ladies who managed the affair. The "Blue Jay" on toast consisted of the letter "J," printed in blue, and surmounting a piece of toast, affixed thereto by a lance composed of wood. All around and about this were substantial and luxuries, while delicious hot coffee, the very best article, "fixed" with delicious cream, warmed the internal anatomy of delighted ladies and gentlemen. The price was but 25 cents. The feast will be continued tonight, with price reduced to 20 cents. Supper from 5 to 8 on April 22, Friday, and you will be permitted to bring all your lady friends.

A Small Fire.

A small fire occurred last evening in the biscuit kiln shed of the D. E. McNicol Pottery company. The department was called and the fire was extinguished before much damage was done. The sprinkler system prevented a disastrous fire.

When the fire tapped a great many people believed it was the riot call bringing the military together.

MANIFESTO FROM BLANCO

Calls the Spanish of Cuba Together For the Defense of the Island.

HAVANA, April 22.—Orders of a secret nature have been formulated and will be made public in the event of an attack being made upon Havana.

A great patriotic demonstration took place last night. A parade occurred, in which the volunteers, firemen and persons of all social classes took part. There were a number of bands in the procession and the marchers carried torches.

Perfect adhesion to the government's attitude is shown by people of all classes here and all express their willingness to fight to the last against the enemies of Spain.

The Official Gazette published an extra, containing a manifesto, which says in part:

"The general government of the island of Cuba to the inhabitants of the island of Cuba:

"Without any reason or legality, without the least offense on our part, and at a time when they have received from us only proofs of friendship, the United States are forcing us into war just at the moment when quietude began to settle over the country.

"If the United States want the island of Cuba let them come and take it. Perhaps the hour is not far distant in which these Carthaginians of America will find their Zama in this island of Cuba which Spain discovered, peopled and civilized and which will never be anything else but Spanish.

"It is our turn to have the honor of defending her, and we will know how to do it with decision and an effort many a time put forth. I count upon you for this with absolute certainty.

"To arms then, fellow countrymen, to arms. There will be a place for all in the fight. Let all co-operate and contribute with the same firmness and enthusiasm to fight the eternal enemy of the Spanish name, emulating the exploits of our ancestors, who always exalted high their country's fame and honor. To arms. Cry a thousand times 'viva Espana,' 'viva el rey Alfonso XIII,' 'viva la Renia Regente,' 'viva Cuba always Spanish.'

NEW FOES TO SPAIN.

If She Attempts Privateering Other Nations Will Use Pressure Against Her.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The action of the United States government in declaring that it would not resort to privateering has been received with great satisfaction in the foreign embassies and legations here. Negotiations along this line have been pending here for some time and are now shifted to Madrid, where the British charge d'affairs is making strong representations to Premier Sagasta to prevent privateering. Whether this will be conceded by Spain is doubtful, as her chief reliance for protracting a war is through commissioning privateers to harass American merchant ships or neutral ships carrying American goods. But it has developed that this course by Spain, while nominally directed against the United States, would operate much more injuriously against the shipping of Great Britain, Germany and other commercial powers, as the bulk of commerce to and from this country is carried in foreign ships.

It is regarded as certain in the best posted diplomatic quarters that if Spain does not relinquish privateering voluntarily she will practice it at her peril as against Great Britain, Germany and possibly some other powers.

SENATOR WALTHALL DEAD.

The Mississippi Statesman Succumbs After a Month's Illness.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Senator Walthall of Mississippi has died here of pneumonia.

Edward C. Walthall was born in Richmond, in 1831. He served in the Confederate army during the Civil war, rising to the rank of major general. His profession was the law.

With the exception of 14 months, from January, 1894, to March, 1895, Mr. Walthall sat continuously in the senate since March 12, 1885. He was first appointed to this position to fill the vacancy caused by the nomination of Hon. L. Q. C. Lamar to a position in President Cleveland's first cabinet and has been re-elected whenever his term has expired since that time. Previous to his resignation in 1894, he had been elected for the term beginning in 1895, and he had only to return and take his seat at the expiration of the term for which he had retired. His resignation at that time was tendered on account of ill health, and while he has given careful attention to the duties of his office since his return to the senate, Mr. Walthall has never been robust since he resumed his seat. He had been absent from his seat in the senate for a month past.

TEXT OF THE ULTIMATUM.

The Cablegram to Woodford and His Reply to Sherman.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Following is the ultimatum to Spain:

Woodford, Minister, Madrid:

You have been furnished with the text of a joint resolution voted by the congress of the United States on the nineteenth instant—approved today—in relation to the pacification of the island of Cuba. In pursuance of that act the president directs you to immediately communicate to the government of Spain said resolution with the formal demand of the government of the United States that the government of Spain at once relinquish its authority and government in the island of Cuba, and withdraw its land and naval force from Cuba and Cuban waters.

In taking this step, the United States hereby disclaims any disposition or intention to exercise sovereignty, jurisdiction or control over said islands except for the pacification thereof and asserts its determination when that is accomplished to leave the government and control of the island to its people under such free and independent government as they may establish.

If by the hour of noon on Saturday next, the twenty-third day of April, instant, there be not communicated to this government by that of Spain a full and satisfactory response to this demand and resolution, whereby the ends of peace in Cuba shall be assured, the president will proceed without further notice to use the power and authority enjoined and conferred upon him by the said joint resolution to such extent as may be necessary to carry the same into effect. SHERMAN.

Woodford's reply said:

Sherman, Washington:

Early this, Thursday, morning, immediately after the receipt of your open telegram and before I had communicated same to Spanish government, Spanish minister for foreign affairs notified me that diplomatic relations are broken between the two countries, and that all official communication between their respective representatives have ceased. I accordingly asked for safe passports. Turn legislation over to British embassy and leave for Paris this afternoon. Have notified consuls. WOODFORD.

The Mississippi Statesman Succumbs After a Month's Illness.

WASHINGTON, April 22. — Senator Walthall of Mississippi has died here of pneumonia.

Edward C. Walthall was born in Richmond, in 1831. He served in the Confederate army during the Civil war, rising to the rank of major general. His profession was the law.

With the exception of 14 months, from January, 1894, to March, 1895, Mr. Walthall sat continuously in the senate since March 12, 1885. He was first appointed to this position to fill the vacancy caused by the nomination of Hon. L. Q. C. Lamar to a position in President Cleveland's first cabinet and has been re-elected whenever his term has expired since that time. Previous to his resignation in 1894, he had been elected for the term beginning in 1895, and he had only to return and take his seat at the expiration of the term for which he had retired. His resignation at that time was tendered on account of ill health, and while he has given careful attention to the duties of his office since his return to the senate, Mr. Walthall has never been robust since he resumed his seat. He had been absent from his seat in the senate for a month past.

Spanish Squadron Ready.

ST. VINCENT, Cape Verde Islands, April 22.—The Spanish Cape Verde squadron is still here, waiting with fires banked.

Cruise Montenegro Vapors.

RIO JANEIRO, April 22.—The warship Niechtheroy has been bought by the United States. She leaves immediately with 3,000 tons of coal.

SOAP CONCERN'S SUIT

That Wellsville Company Still Has Troubles.

CREDITOR BRINGS ACTION

For Money He Could Not Collect After the Sale—Cruelty and Drunkenness Charged by a Wife Who Asks the Court to Give Her a Divorce.

LISBON, April 22.—[Special.]—Augustine Haller has brought another action against the Wellsville Soap company. Haller says the proceeds arising from the sale of the property of the company were not enough to pay his claim, and there is yet due him $3,280. He makes John O. Catlett, John Lyth, George Imbrie, John Rayl, W. C. Fraser and T. T. Murray, defendants. He asks that the creditors of the company and the amounts due each may be ascertained by the court; that the names of all the stockholders not named above be ascertained and they be made defendants; that all stockholders who have not paid the full amount of their subscriptions be required to do so, that each stockholder be required to pay his proportion of any debts remaining not exceeding the amount of his stock. Firestone Brothers have filed an action against Charles Dewalt for judgment on four promissory notes of $295 each, and asks for the sale of mortgaged premises in Butler township. Emma Maxwell asked for a divorce from Herbert C. Maxwell. She claims extreme cruelty, gross neglect and habitual drunkenness. They were married in Wellsville in 1895.

Bridgewater Improvements.

The Bridgewater Gas company has had a great deal of trouble with water in their pipes, between the city and East End, and this morning work was commenced laying a new line from the Laughlin pottery to the bridge. It will require 2,000 feet of pipe.

The work on their new plant in the East End is progressing rapidly. The machinery is arriving every day, and it is expected the plant will be in operation in 30 days.

Went Over the Ground.

Engineer Newhall, of the maintenance department of the Cleveland & Pittsburg road, was in the city a short time yesterday afternoon, and in company with Freight Agent T. J. Thomas viewed the ground on which the new East End switch will be built.

It was stated this morning that work on the switch would be commenced during the next two weeks, and be completed as soon as possible.

Firemen Are For War.

Chief Morley, of the fire station, has a portion of his place decorated in a real patriotic manner. Over the big bell American and Cuban flags are suspended. Visitors during the day admired that part of the building more than any other.

All the boys at the station are for war, and are only hoping that news of the successful bombardment of Havana will soon be received.

A splendid supper at the Christian church tonight, April 22, at only 20 cents. Everybody invited. From 5 to 8 o'clock.

On the River.

The river is on the decline, and the marks today registered seven feet. This is a fall of about 10 inches since yesterday.

The new packet, Will J. Cummins, of the Pittsburg and Cincinnati trade, will be down tonight. It will receive very little freight at this port.

The Urania and Ben Hur went down last night, and the Virginia up and Bedford down are the only boats today.

Small Boys Drilled.

The small boys have become imbued with patriotic spirit and last evening no less than 50 of them paraded the streets. They were headed by a drum corps and carried the Stars and Stripes.

Looking Over the List.

Mayor Bough and council will caucus this evening at the office of Clerk Hanley for the purpose of looking over the list of appointments.

Broke a Wagon.

Yesterday afternoon a team driven by Bob Webb went over the hill in Lisbon street. The wagon was broken, but the driver and horses escaped injury.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, APRIL 22.

UNION PAPERS.
All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above
Union Label at the head of their columns.

SPAIN may have a knife up her sleeve.
She usually has.

This is not the proper time for partisan politics, and those gentlemen in the house and senate who happen to think so should consult their constituents if they are in doubt.

SINCE Uncle Sam has decided to chastise Spain, the old gentleman should not forget that she is old enough to know better, and deserves a spanking she will not soon forget.

A LARGE number of congressmen have given out for publication their views on the probable duration of the war, and,
with only a few exceptions, three months is the limit. Perhaps they will wish they could retract that statement this time next year.

TELLING THE NEWS.

The NEWS REVIEW war bulletin has been telling the latest news for several weeks, and will continue to do so as long as there are stirring events in number and importance sufficient to interest the public. The service has been excellent, not only in quantity but in quality.
Not one announcement has been denied, while the hour at which the information is given never fails to excite the most favorable comment. Thousands learn the latest news every day from the NEWS REVIEW, and thousands will continue to learn it until Spain has been thoroughly thrashed and the soldier boys are returning to the girls they left behind them.

SOUTHERN PATRIOTISM.

As a seal for the ties which bind North and South in one common union this little unpleasantness seems to have gone beyond the borders of reasonable expectation. Everywhere have the blue coated regulars, hastening to the front, been greeted with evidences of loyalty. All the people have turned out to cheer them on their way and wish them Godspeed, but nowhere has the reception been more hearty, more enthusiastic than in those sections where the Stars and Stripes were once hated with a bitter hatred, and the coat of blue was never believed to cover the back of any but a rascal. The South has done nobly, and unless all indications fail it will not simply show its patriotism by shouting approval as the Northern troops pass on to the front.

THE SALARY BILL.

Unless the senate experiences a change of heart very soon, the Seventy-third general assembly will not place the county officers of Ohio on salary. It now seems as though the bill sent up from the house will never be able to muster a majority. Amendments have been made and so many salaries have been changed that its own author would only recognize it with difficulty. A number of officers from the most important counties have been in Columbus using their influence against the measure, and with no little success, for they are as a rule good politicians who know well the operation of pressing an advantage. All these things are calculated to work against the success of the bill, and even though it does pass it will likely be shorn of so many important features as to be next to worthless as an effective measure.

No Change at Kittanning.

Recent advices received by President Hughes states that the situation at Kittanning is unchanged, and the strike bids fair to last for several months.

George Davis Was Arrested Last Night by Railroad Detectives--He Is Wanted in Pennsylvania--Sons of Veterans Recruiting--All the News of Wellsville.

Early last evening Detectives Lancaster and Meehan arrested George Davis and Richard Hale for illegal riding on a freight train. A message from the Beaver county authorities told them to send Davis to Beaver at once, and to have Hale put in the workhouse for a term as both were believed to know something of the tragedy which resulted in the death of Joseph Turner. The man and several others attempted to rob William Roessler near Bridgewater, but he drew his revolver and shot Turner dead. The others of the party escaped.

Davis was taken to Beaver last night on the evening train, and Squire MacKenzie committed Hale to the Canton workhouse.

Sons of Veterans Recruiting.

Sergeant Cornelius and other members of the committee who have charge of the mustering of a company of Sons of Veterans, were at city hall last night for a short time, and 15 names were soon on the roll. Among them is a prominent physician and a number of equally well known merchants. An old soldier who made a good record in the late war wanted to enlist.

A lady, well known in Wellsville, applied in person for permission to enroll herself as a nurse. Her services were promptly accepted.

The News of Wellsville.

Among the debris that lodged along Yellow Creek during the recent flood were two coffins. They can be seen lodged in the branches of a large tree.

A prominent cyclist while out riding yesterday met with what might have been a serious accident. He was coming down the Eighteenth street hill, and when about half-way down struck a large rock and landed on his head 20 feet away. Fortunately he got off with few bruises and apparently no injury to the wheel.

At a meeting of the men's league at the First Presbyterian church last night the following officers were elected: President, Dr. B. R. Parke; vice president, W. W. Irwin; secretary, J. W. McQueen; treasurer, P. Bruner. It was decided to hold a banquet at the next regular meeting, the third Thursday in May. A splendid program will be rendered.

Oscar Bough has rented Mrs. Maggie McBane's home on Main street, and will remove from the Arnold house about May 1.

James H. Patterson, of Nevada street, formerly a packer at the Pioneer pottery, has been with the Cartwright pottery since Monday.

A sensation was created in the vicinity of Fourteenth street by a drunk. He called at a neighbor's house and offered an insult to the lady who resented it, and swore out a warrant for his arrest. The case is to be heard before Squire Haney at 7 o'clock tonight.

A. O. Geer, who has been in the grocery business at Thirteenth and Commerce, is selling out to quit the business.

George Furniss and wife, who went from Wellsville to Boston are greeting their old friends again. They are looking well and prosperous.

W. Gloss, who recently sold his grocery on Commerce street to Mr. Leith, is having the room two doors below remodeled, and will again engage in the business.

F. W. Oline, of Youngstown, was arrested by Officer Lancaster for illegal train riding, last night. He was fined $5 and costs by Justice MacKenzie and committed to jail.

Township Trustees Make an Explanation.

HOW DOCTORS ARE EMPLOYED

The Infirmary Directors Had a Word to Say and Changed Their View So Often That the Township Authorities Employed Their Own Physician.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW--Inasmuch as some reflections are being cast on the township trustees in reference to the employment of a physician for the county and township for the ensuing year, we make a statement to protect ourselves from censure, although loath to make any statement in the press.

Some time previous to the expiration of the contract for county and township physician for the indigent of Liverpool township for the year, one of the infirmary directors, while on a visit to this city, told Doctor Williams he might consider himself retained for another year and make a statement to that effect. On the strength of this the trustees committed themselves to Doctor Williams, so far as to continue him as the township doctor for the coming year.

After the director went home the other directors concluded they would not employ a doctor for the county work in Liverpool township this year, thereby annulling the arrangement made with Doctor Williams.

April 15 a meeting was held at the infirmary at which the trustees endeavored to show the directors the necessity of employing a doctor. Then the trustees learned the directors had again changed their minds, and Dr. O. P. Andrews had been employed to do the county work in Liverpool township for $110. Consequently there was no work for the trustees in that line, but as we had committed ourselves to Doctor Williams at the instigation of the directors, we did not feel like breaking our word and he was employed to do the township work at $110, the price paid last year. Under existing law the profit is all in the county work, and feeling sure Doctor Williams would work hard for every cent he got we did not ask for bids.

The trustees suggested that the contract be let to the lowest bidder, providing that a number of city doctors would bid, but the directors thought that course would not be advisable, the following bids having been submitted to them:

Township, $110; county, $90; township, $110; county, $80, and one of $156 for both. Doctor Andrews' bid of $110 for county alone is therefore not the lowest.

The Girl I Left Behind Me.

An American play in every sense of the word is "The Girl I Left Behind Me," which the manager of the Grand is to present Monday evening next. The fact that it is from the pen of David Belasco and Franklin Fyles is enough to commend it, apart from the fact of its hearty reception in Boston a few years ago. The dialogue deals with the Indian troubles in the frontier which enables enough of the military to be introduced to give zest to the production.

Your LACE CURTAINS

give to the outside world their impression of your taste. More people see them from the outside than from in, and as people do their looking during pleasant weather, that's the time to have new curtains.

THERE ARE CURTAINS FOR PARLOR, CURTAINS FOR SITTING ROOM, CURTAINS FOR BED ROOMS.

Every lady knows this, but she can't always find distinctive styles. We being HOUSE FURNISHERS realize the differences and provide for them.

ANOTHER THING!

We Give You EXCLUSIVE DESIGNS.

Instead of buying many curtains of a few designs, we buy many designs and but few of each kind, so when you get from us you'll not get the same as your neighbor has.

Many ladies say, "My Curtains don't look as well after being done up as when new."

Of course they don't. Nothing does.

The manufacturers know this as well as you do, and as a result they are making curtains for $5 that are as handsome as the $15 ones of a few years ago.

ATTACKED A SALOONIST

A Thief Tried to Kill Him
With a Bottle.

MADE A DENT IN THE DOOR

Had It Struck the Man He Would Have Been No More, but He Was Fortunate Enough to Escape With Nothing More Serious Than a Scare.

An uptown saloonkeeper had an experience last evening that taught him not to look for thieves unless he is armed.

He has been in the habit of keeping some of his stock of liquor in the back yard, and for several weeks has been missing small amounts every morning.
The thieves became so bold that he determined to set a watch, and last night his efforts were rewarded by seeing two young men enter the yard and going to a case take therefrom two bottles of ginger ale.

He was not close enough to tell who the parties were, but called to them, and one man started to run. The other turned quickly, and, with an oath, threw the bottle in his hand at the proprietor, who narrowly escaped being struck. The bottle hit the door and made a large dent. Had it struck the proprietor he would have undoubtedly been seriously injured.

DECORATED NOVELTIES

Are Attracting Attention in the Market.

In touching on the state of trade,
China, Glass and Lamps says:

"The increasing variety of decorated novelties and small articles made for the retail and department stores is bringing a steady and profitable trade to many progressive potteries who have made this class of goods a specialty, and some excellently designed and finely decorated goods are being made in large quantities. The trade gained by American potters who have turned their attention to the manufacture of high class light semi-porcelain dinner ware and specialties, is most encouraging to those who have closely watched this phase of development in our pottery industry, and the artistic decorations of this class of goods is now a matter of pride with potters and jobbers."

PENNSYLVANIA GUARDSMEN.

They Were Excited by an Untruthful Bulletin.

Early yesterday evening a local paper posted a bulletin which announced that the Pennsylvania Guard had been ordered out for duty. The report seemed so preposterous at that time that the News Review investigated and found it to be untrue in every particular.

A number of Pennsylvania guardsmen, who are at present engaged in this city, called at this office during the evening to ask for particulars, and when they heard the untruth of the misfit's statement, were indignant, for some of them, strangers not acquainted with the paper's reputation, had believed the bulletin and were preparing to move.

PARADED THE STREETS

Captain Hill and His Soldiers Wildly Cheered.

MILITARY NIGHT IN TOWN

The Manley Band Led the Column and Hundreds of People Turned Out—An Impromptu Demonstration Which Was as Hearty as It Was Well Received.

It was military night in East Liverpool, and scores of people lined the streets, cheering the soldiers as they marched along, an impromptu demonstration which clearly showed the excited state of the people and the presence of a very well developed war spirit.
The medical examination yesterday afternoon and the presence of so many uniformed men in the business part of town brought people from everywhere, and when squads were sent out for drill each was surrounded by an enthusiastic audience. At length Manley's band appeared in Market street, and, marching to city hall, tendered their services to Captain Hill. He quickly gathered the boys together and the parade began. The line of march took them through the center of town, and the reception they received was calculated to inspire the least enthusiastic.

A number of citizens had arranged yesterday to employ the Haines and Manley bands to escort the boys to the depot when the order to move came, but the bands upon hearing of the move at once tendered their services. They will be notified immediately upon receipt of orders, and within an hour will be ready.

The medical examination conducted by Captain Hobbs was satisfactory, and not more than two men failed to pass.
Captain Hill continued to take recruits last night until every vacancy was filled, and had he desired many more than the required number would have enlisted.
The company now contains 75 men.

In addition to the list published in the NEWS REVIEW of yesterday, since April 12 the following men have enlisted:

Baird Anderson, John D. McKinnon, Raymond S. White, James Skelton, E.
H. Simms, Fred Smith, Joel W. Hoyt, Harry E. Smith, James E. Ward, John Kennedy, Joseph H. Harvey, Harry Hayden, Charles Hughes, John C.
Headley, Morris Carnahan, Samuel Moon, Isaac Lucas, John Robinson.

"Well I told you the truth, and if there is war I will die game."

"That's the stuff" put in Captain Hill as he overheard the remark, "and I hope

SOUVENIR SPECIALS WERE APPRECIATED

on our opening days. This original feature of a commercial banquet, to which the public were invited, proved so successful that we are tempted to repeat the innovation monthly, for a while at least.

Selling goods at the prices quoted at these special souvenir occasions is a costly affair. But all advertising is costly, and as the benefits go directly to our friends and customers, it will probably tend to increase our trade, and thereby fulfill its mission.

This week we give two items for boys, two for men, limiting each buyer to a reasonable quantity, and positively refusing dealers.

Two Days==Saturday and Monday

COR FIFTH & WASHINGTON STS.
EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

TO THE ADVERTISERS.

The Evening News Review has the largest bonafide PAID daily circulation of any paper published in East Liverpool, and the largest circulation in Wellsville of any daily paper published in East Liverpool. Keen witted and wide awake business men and advertisers will make note of these facts.

HARRY PALMER,
Owner and Manager.

TO BUSINESS MEN.

The combination prices of the NEWS REVIEW, advertisement in paper and bills from said advertisement, are cheaper than any other daily paper in the city, while the workmanship, material and inks made use of are incomparably superior to those of would-be competitors. Test the matter. We will prove the truth of our assertion.

Printed envelopes, either 6 or 6½ in size, at the NEWS REVIEW, from 95 cents per thousand up, according to quality. We defy competition in workmanship or material.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

City Treasurer Herbert is in Smith's Ferry on business.

The Humane society has had no complaints for several days.

The clerks' union will this evening initiate several candidates.

Alex McGraw is a great deal better today, and is rapidly recovering his health.

The noon train arrived on time today, something that has not occurred for several weeks.

George Carey made no hits yesterday, but had eight putouts and three assists to his credit.

Clyde Larkins this afternoon returned from a four days' visit with friends in Beaver county.

The West End culvert needs repairing, and will be attended to by the street force in a few days.

Yesterday's shipments from the east-bound platform was very good, and about 16 cars were loaded.

B. F. Drakenfield of New York, who has been spending a week in the city potteries, will return home this evening.

The platform at the passenger station in many places needs immediate attention. Boards are broken and some are rotten.

The city league will meet this evening at city hall for the purpose of adopting a schedule and transacting other business.

Reverend Weary left this morning for Fairview, where he officiated at the funeral of a friend. He returned home this afternoon.

The funeral of Miss Lilly McKinnon took place this afternoon and was largely attended. Interment was made at Long's Run.

Squire Hill this morning rendered judgment in favor of Ross, Sprig & Co. against W. R. Grafton for $61.75, with interest from January.

George P. Ikirt has entered suit against F. Bagley and wife Mrs. E. J. Bagley for $83.75 for professional services. The case will be heard Wednesday.

Business at the office of the township trustees has been very slow the last few days and promises to continue so, as the officers are determined to help none who can help themselves.

Baggage Master George Smith yesterday made arrangements to have a flower bed in the grass plot in front of the passenger station. Flowers will be planted as soon as the weather permits.

A letter received from John Godwin states that he has arrived safely in Utica and is playing good ball. He also states that there are three men for every position on the team, but thinks he will have no trouble in holding his job.

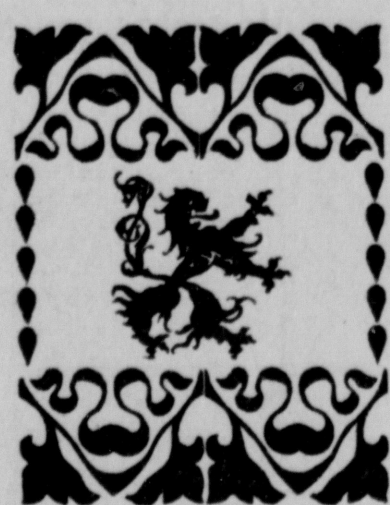

The liquor stolen from the saloon of C. Czech, in Broadway, some time ago, is still in the keeping of the police. Chief Johnson will have it taken to Lisbon in the near future to be used as evidence against those who are now in jail charged with the crime.

The King's Daughters of the Methodist Protestant church spent last evening very pleasantly at the home of Mrs. James Hargreaves, Pennsylvania avenue. Mr. Tarr presided at the piano, and J. L. Swan gave an excellent phonograph concert.

Yesterday afternoon the township trustees donated $10 toward the support of a woman who is ill. They received word that the money was not being received by the wife, who received it, but upon investigation found the report to be false. It is probable the case will be turned over to the infirmary directors.
